

ARMY REGULATION }
No. 10-61 }

HEADQUARTERS
DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON, DC, 1 March 1983

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

UNITED STATES ARMY INTELLIGENCE OPERATIONS DETACHMENT

Effective 1 April 1983

This revision updates the mission and functions of the United States Army Intelligence Operations Detachment. Supplementation of this regulation is prohibited unless prior approval is obtained from HQDA(DAMI-RMB-M), WASH DC 20310.

Interim changes to this regulation are not official unless they are authenticated by The Adjutant General. Users will destroy interim changes on their expiration dates unless sooner superseded or rescinded.

1. Purpose. This regulation assigns the mission and principal functions of the United States Army Intelligence Operations Detachment (USAIOD). It also establishes USAIOD's relationships with other headquarters, agencies, and Government departments.

2. Applicability. This regulation applies to the Active Army. It does not apply to the Army National Guard or the US Army Reserve.

3. Impact on the New Manning System. This regulation does not contain information that affects the New Manning System.

4. References. a. Required publications.

(1) AR 380-25 (Foreign Visitors and Accreditations). Cited in paragraph 8a(8).

(2) AR 381-10 (US Army Intelligence Activities). Cited in paragraph 7b(1).

(3) (C) AR 381-141 (Intelligence Contingency Funds (U)). Cited in paragraph 8b(2).

b. Related publication. (A related publication is merely a source of additional information. The user does not have to read it to understand this regulation.) AR 37-47 (Contingency Funds of the Secretary of the Army).

5. Explanation of abbreviations.

a. ACSI Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence

b. CI counterintelligence

c. CSA Chief of Staff, US Army

d. DA	Department of the Army
e. DIA	Defense Intelligence Agency
f. HQDA	Headquarters, Department of the Army
g. HUMINT ..	human intelligence
h. I&W	indications and warning
i. MACOM	major Army command
j. OACSI	Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence
k. OSD	Office of the Secretary of Defense
l. POC	point of contact
m. SA	Secretary of the Army
n. USAIOD ...	United States Army Intelligence Operations Detachment

6. Concept of operations. The USAIOD is an administrative unit consisting of five distinct operating elements. Each has separate missions, functions, and staff relationships.

7. Mission. The mission of each element of USAIOD is as follows:

a. Office of Foreign Liaison. The Office of Foreign Liaison—

(1) Provides the single point of contact (POC) between Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA) and foreign military attachés.

(2) Plans, coordinates, and executes the Foreign Visitor Program in support of the Secretary of the Army (SA); Chief of Staff, US Army (CSA); and Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence (ACSI).

(3) Directs reciprocity programs with foreign military attachés.

(4) Provides protocol support to the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence (OACSI) and selected SA, CSA, and Vice Chief of Staff, US Army activities.

(5) Represents HQDA at foreign embassy functions.

b. Intelligence Command and Control Office. The Intelligence Command and Control Office—

(1) Assists the OACSI staff in conducting intelligence oversight inspections of intelligence activities Army-wide to insure compliance with applicable Executive orders, AR 381-10, and other regulatory directives.

(2) Assists OACSI in implementing intelligence production policy and management actions.

(3) Provides support to OACSI in responding to congressional and special inquiries relating to intelligence, counterintelligence (CI), and security.

(4) Assists OACSI in implementing CI and security policy.

(5) Assists OACSI in implementing Defense policy on disclosure of classified military information to foreign governments and international organizations.

(6) Provides selected CI support to Army operations security planning and operational activities.

(7) Assists OACSI in developing and implementing human intelligence (HUMINT) policy and procedures.

c. OACSI Watch Office. The OACSI Watch Office operates a 24-hour intelligence watch team to screen intelligence information in support of OACSI and HQDA agencies.

d. Project Manager's Office (Red Team). The Project Manager's Office—

(1) Advises the ACSI and HQDA agencies by providing integration of all-source intelligence into a comprehensive and continuing assessment of the Soviet and Warsaw Pact threat.

(2) Monitors development of threat assessment in support of Army plans, programs, and operations.

e. Current Intelligence Division. The Current Intelligence Division interprets and provides all-source current intelligence to support the ACSI responsibilities for furnishing current intelligence to the Army Secretariat, HQDA agencies, and major Army commands (MACOMs).

8. Functions. The functions of the US Army Intelligence Operations Detachment are as follows:

a. Office of Foreign Liaison. The Office of Foreign Liaison—

(1) Administers foreign military attaché tours, Department of the Army VIP tours, and foreign counterpart visits to the United States.

(2) Conducts Joint Chiefs of Staff and Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) tours for foreign counterpart visitors.

(3) Manages SA, CSA, and ACSI representational gift programs according to AR 37-47.

(4) Manages International Military Education and Training Program tours with the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations and Plans, and the US Army Training and Doctrine Command.

(5) Serves as POC for HQDA agencies and other agencies on protocol involving foreign representatives in the United States.

(6) Administers and controls foreign military vis. to US Army installations and to Army cognizant defense contractors.

(7) Briefs and debriefs US Army military attachés.

(8) Administers Department of the Army (DA) diplomatic accreditation and DA special and functional accreditation programs according to AR 380-25.

(9) Processes, administers, and controls foreign attaché requests for visits, information, and documents. Compares these requests with similar courtesies shown to US Army military attachés abroad.

(10) Processes identification card applications for foreign attachés.

(11) Manages awards program to recognize foreign VIPs and attachés.

(12) Monitors foreign military requests for treatment at US Army medical facilities.

(13) Arranges all social functions pertaining to attachés for the ACSI, Deputy ACSI, and OACSI Director of Foreign Liaison.

(14) Arranges designated functions for SA or CSA and other senior officers as may be directed when the function pertains to attachés.

(15) Maintains the representational calendar for members of the Office of Foreign Liaison.

b. Intelligence Command and Control Office. The Intelligence Command and Control Office—

(1) Monitors and inspects all Army-wide intelligence activities to insure compliance with Executive orders, and Department of Defense and Army directives.

(2) Conducts Intelligence Contingency Fund and intelligence property inspections with emphasis on intelligence oversight according to AR 381-141 and current directives.

(3) Provides support to OACSI in guiding and coordinating Army intelligence production.

(4) Responds to congressional and other special inquiries relating to intelligence, counterintelligence, and security.

(5) Provides planning and CI support for special operations, and technical operations and countermeasures.

(6) Assists the OACSI staff in providing interpretations of Defense policy on the disclosure of classified military information to foreign governments and international organizations.

(7) Provides sensitive compartmented information security policy and security education guidance to the Army.

(8) Provides support to OACSI in matters relating to the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) and the national intelligence community on Army HUMINT policy and procedures.

(9) Assists OACSI in developing regulations, monitoring collection activities, and preparing and defending the Army HUMINT program and budget.

c. OACSI Watch Office. The OACSI Watch Office—

(1) Monitors global situations to provide indications and warning (I&W) support to the Army Operations Center and other HQDA agencies.

(2) Provides I&W briefings to principals of the Army Staff as required.

(3) Coordinates Army intelligence matters with the National Military Command Center, National Military Intelligence Center, DIA, and other Government agencies.

d. Project Manager's Office (Red Team). The Project Manager's Office (Red Team)—

(1) Participates in force structuring studies conducted in support of the Joint Strategic Planning System and in other DA-level studies using dynamic analysis to insure that Soviet and Warsaw Pact concepts, doctrine, and tactics are properly portrayed.

(2) Advises the ACSI and Army Staff on important aspects of Soviet military doctrine, strategy, and tactics in support of Army Staff initiatives.

(3) Monitors the consistency and accuracy of threat application in selected studies within the Army Study System.

(4) Participates in selected assessments of Soviet and Warsaw Pact Forces for the ACSI and Army Staff.

e. Current Intelligence Division. The Current Intelligence Division—

(1) Provides a daily written current intelligence "Black-Book" for distribution to the Army Secretariat and Army Staff.

(2) Provides a daily DA Intelligence Summary for distribution to MACOMs.

(3) Provides a daily current intelligence briefing for the ACSI and the OACSI staff.

(4) Provides a weekly current intelligence briefing for the Secretary of the Army.

(5) Provides sensitive compartmented information graphics support to OACSI and the Army Staff.

9. Command and Staff relationships. The USAIOD is a field operating agency under the supervision and control of the ACSI. Each element of the USAIOD is authorized direct communication and coordination with OSD, Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, HQDA agencies, MACOMs, and other Government agencies.

The proponent agency of this regulation is the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence. Users are invited to send comments and suggested improvements on DA Form 2028 (Recommended Changes to Publications and Blank Forms) direct to HQDA(DAMI-RMB-M) WASH DC 20310.

By Order of the Secretary of the Army:

E. C. MEYER
General, United States Army
Chief of Staff

Official:

ROBERT M. JOYCE
Major General, United States Army
The Adjutant General

DISTRIBUTION:

To be distributed in accordance with DA Form 12-9A requirements for AR, Organization and Functions:

Active Army—C
ARNG—None
USAR—None